Reason of Upgrade

● Add some new functions, modify some functions, and enhance product quality to meet customers' requirements.

Main update

1. Supports sending customized voice to front-end analog camera through Hik-connect, and supports linkage of front-end customized voice playback in case of alarm.

2. Integrated audio noise reduction algorithm with native player library.

3. The analog channels of 4-ch HUH-M device support accessing 8MP camera, the analog channel 1 remains the same as the original (live view and coding configuration, etc.), the analog channels 2-4 access 8MP camera, local live view will be 8MP@15 and adopt 8MPlite code (1920*2160) , and smart code is not supported after access to 8MP.

4. For advanced motion detection, a tip is added below the drawing button in the interface of "System - Event – Normal Event - Motion Detection": "Tip: Right click to finish drawing".

Modified functions

1. The content of black and white list in local GUI and web is changed to Block list and Allow list.

2. The main stream of the analog channel defaults variable bit rate, and other parameters remain unchanged; The sub stream of the analog channel defaults variable bit rate of H.265, and other parameters remain unchanged; There is no configuration compatibility: the encoding parameters won't be adjusted, if the released version is upgraded to this version.

3. Cloud storage does not support Google drive. The configuration will automatically change to One drive after upgrading, if it is Google drive before.
